Join Solent concert Orchestra for what could be our most exciting concert to date!

On Sunday, the 19th of May at 4 o'clock we will be performing (in Saint Mary's Church Twyford SO21 1NT) a program encompassing:

- Napoleon's cannons and Moscow's church bells from Tchaikovsky's 1812 overture;
- The wild witches of Mussorgsky's "Night on the Bare Mountain";
- the horses of Suppe's cavalry overture;
- the Middle Eastern festival of Saint-Saints' "Bacchanale";
- the enchantment of Delibes' Ballet Sylvia;
- and our own Chris Coles will be taking to the piano keyboard to take us from the majestic mountains to the exquisite lakesides of Grieg's Piano Concerto in A Minor, under the baton of our conductor Simon Wilkins.

All these much-loved and magnificent pieces in one afternoon. Please join us.

Free to children; adults £10 at the door or from www.wegotickets.com
